

Public Health Care in Monmouthshire: An Historical Perspective

Following the recent 70th anniversary of the NHS, Gwent Archives invites you to a free afternoon of exciting talks, with an exhibition, to celebrate the culmination of our Wellcome Trust funded hospital records cataloguing project.

Thursday 11th April 2019

1:00pm - 4:45pm

Programme:

Prof. Keir Waddington, Cardiff University:

‘Kindly see to the matter’: Local communities, sanitation and modernity in rural Monmouthshire, 1850-1914

Dr. Steve Thompson, Aberystwyth University:

‘The greatest good for the greatest number’: The medical aid societies of south Wales

Dr. Peter Dickson, Swansea University and retired G.P.:

Asian doctors in south Wales- was there a welcome in the hillside?

The afternoon will include a coffee break. Refreshments will be provided for a small charge.

The event is free but booking is essential. Please contact:
